Points out that 8 candidates have obtained enough marks to pass the Exam^{n} & that the names advertised in the notification were those of candidates who have been selected by the Chief Court for appointment.

Subd. The note seems to require slight modification to make the point clear to the public that the 3 whose names appear in the note are only the first three out of the total number that passed.

20/7/18

22 Both the paragraphs referred to by the Chief Court do not express require the publication of the results in the Gazette. But there seems to be no objection to publish the full results if approved, and perhaps it will remove the doubt that exists now. 23/7/18
